On the other hand, Sugar Refining advanced further on large transactions, as did the United States Steel stocks.

In the railway list, substantial gains were scored by the Eric issues, Rock island, Chicago, and Great Western, Missouri Pacific, and Texas and Pacific. St. Paul was comparatively dull.

American stocks were shown at material advances in the London market and foreign houses bought heavily here.

The receiving and carrying of coal will be the great source of fixed income in future of the Eastern railroads, and the persistent buying of Eric shows that this fact is not being overlooked by investors. The dealing in this stock yesterday and today was enormous, and when it is remembered that the Eric stocks are far below the prices of December, 1901, it may be safely said the stocks are low. J. J.
